

Our writers hoped to add more tomfoolery by starting before April Fools' Day to sift through the headlines and top stories and uncover all the news that's fit to skewer for the Gridiron.

Newsmakers from politicians to zoo animals aren't safe when Honolulu's newspaper, magazine, radio, television and stage personalities gather at the Diamond Head Theatre for three fully produced shows on Aug. 13-14. We have added a Saturday matinee to our lineup of two nightly shows.

The show pokes fun at just about anyone and anything in Hawaii's headlines over the past year. Proceeds benefit the Society of Professional Journalists' Hawaii Chapter student internships and scholarships.

Gridiron 2010: There's No Business Like No Business will begin at 8 p.m. Aug. 13-14 and 3 p.m. Aug. 14 at Diamond Head Theatre, 520 Makapuu Ave., across from Kapiolani Community College. There's plenty of free parking at KCC and behind the theater.
